Children's Theater Summer Internship / Residency

Children's Theater Interns at Springville Center for the Arts (SCA) participate in a summer-long residency. Activities include acting, teaching, and managing theater productions.

Participants will:

- Fill all on and off stage roles to produce a touring theater program for elementary age children.
- Teach/direct a variety of workshops including musical theater for grades 4-8, playwriting, creative movement, and more. Class topics are based on the skill set of the applicants.
- Produce/direct a larger scale musical production with local high school and college students.

The program begins immediately after the Spring semester and ends mid-August (13 weeks).

Springville Center for the Arts is a growing multi-arts center located in a rural community in Western New York State. An apartment shared with other interns and a stipend of $150 per week is provided.

Responsibilities

Responsibilities vary throughout the program and include performing, teaching, directing, lighting, building/painting sets, and managing a theater space as well as engaging in our various multi-arts center happenings.

Requirements

- Ability to perform for children
- Because of legal requirements, you must be seeking a degree in an arts or education related field: Theater, Technical Theater, Music Education, Arts Education, Dance, etc.
- Comfort working with, teaching, and/or leading children in a workshop setting
- Self-initiative. Participants work with staff to create programs.
- You must be comfortable with all areas of theater production. You do not have to have experience with power tools, for example, but you must be willing to learn.
