

ABOUT SPRINGVILLE CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Springville Center for the Arts is a rural multi-arts center in Springville, New York that serves as the cultural hub for the region. We offer a wide range of programs including concerts, theater productions, gallery exhibits, workshops, summer programs for children, and large-scale community events. SCA's mission is to build a culture of appreciation for the arts and foster creative inspiration through diverse opportunities for artistic engagement.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

- Events: Assist with large-scale multi-arts events like the annual Art Crawl. Hang artwork, set up, tear down, and facilitate activity tents within the event.
- Summer Camps: Develop lesson plans and teach summer workshops for kids in grades Pre-K through 12 based on your interests. Examples include: stop motion animation, printmaking, public art, photography, castle camp, short films, or puppetry.
- Public Art Corps: Supervise the group of teens we hire each year to paint murals around Springville. Manage the group, help design murals, and participate in painting the murals.

REQUIREMENTS

- Be an undergraduate student in an Art, Arts Education, Graphic Art, Art History, Painting/Drawing, Sculpture, or similar program
- Comfort teaching, directing, and leading children in a workshop or production setting
- Intrinsic motivation with a strong passion for the arts
- Collaborative skills and ability to work alongside fellow interns, SCA staff members, and the community
- Open mindedness and willingness to learn

INTERN LIFE & BENEFITS

- This is a full-time internship with a weekly stipend of $250 with housing included.
- The internship begins the last week of May and ends the second week of August.
- You will be living with other theater and visual arts interns in a large house located directly next to the Center, only a block from Main Street. The area is extremely walkable, with restaurants, coffee shops, library, movie theater, parks, and shops all located within a couple blocks. Usually a couple interns have a car and can carpool when necessary. We also have bicycles for intern use.
